RESULTS

Please Help Us Complete the Wall

Most of us are familiar with Nehemiah's project of rebuilding the wall around Jerusalem. He brought many people together, collected resources, sacrificed personally, and corporately overcame intense opposition, but stayed focused and completed the task to the glory of God! Did you remember that revival followed? The construction project preceded a great renewal and harvest!

We are on the eve of completing the six-year effort to construct the FEL Series! All 12 modules will soon be available in the Standard Version for domestic use and the Site License Version for overseas use. Next year, we will focus our effort on national and worldwide distribution and leadership training events.

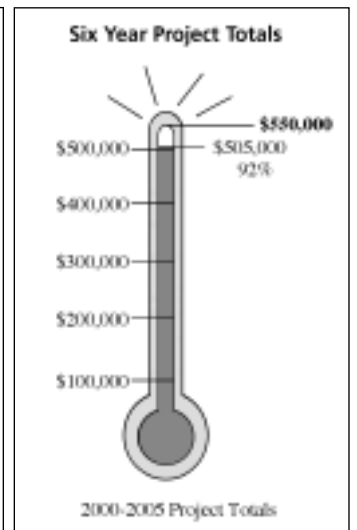

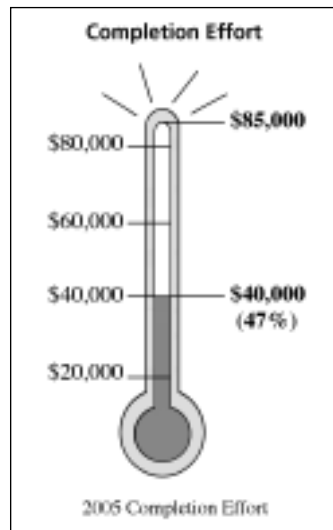

FEL Series: Standard Version

FEL Series: Site License Version

We have raised $505,000 of the $550,000 needed to complete the project, which is over 92%! We need only $45,000 more to complete the work by year end. Would you help us complete this task, so that we may see national renewal and worldwide harvest? Please send a gift today so that we may complete the wall!

LTI's Key Wallbuilders

We have had many people who have helped with the creation of the FEL Series, but there are four people who deserve special recognition.

Steve ***,
Content Editor

Steve  has served with the FEL Series as Content Editor, Designer, Technical Editor, and Module Author. Without Steve, the FEL Series would not exist or be the quality it is. Steve was a top gun jetfighter pilot with the Air Force before becoming a world missions strategist.

 Removed for safety reasons.

Rebekah Reese grew into becoming our Technical Editor and took the format to the next level. She has had the toughest job on the team with constant deadlines and time pressure. She is a champion.

Rebekah Reese,
Technical Editor

Bob Baynard,
SLV/Content Editor

Bob Baynard served as Content Editor, Module Author, Site License Version Editor, and producer of all PowerPoint slides. Bob has also produced the SLV distribution policy and contract. He has a rare mix of skill, diligence, and humility.

Diane Moore created all of the test questions and learning objectives for the modules. Diane also co-designed LTI's Certified Trainer Seminar material. Diane helps teach Certification and will join LTI full time after retiring as a school teacher.

Ten Principles of Giving

From The Leader's Balanced Life

The first step in wise financial stewardship is recognizing that all you have belongs to the Lord. Giving back to the Lord is a measure of your spiritual condition. Here are 10 principles of giving:

1. Seed Time and Harvest Time.

There is a time to sow seed that later results in a time to reap harvest (Gen 8:22).

2. Blessed To Be a Blessing.

God blesses us so that we can bless others. His blessing on us is contingent on us blessing others (Gen 12:1-3).

3. Obedient Giving.

We are expected to always give obediently with no exceptions (Dt 28:11).

4. Test God In Giving.

You can not out-give God. He will give you back more than you give to Him (Mal 3:8).

5. Giving to the Needy.

God expects believers to give to take care of the poor and needy (Dt 15:11).

6. Generous Giving.

We are to give generously and liberally (2Co 8:1-4).

7. Sacrificial Giving.

The Lord is pleased with sacrificial giving or giving when it is a great sacrifice (Mk 12:42).

8. Cheerful Giving.

We are to give willfully and cheerfully, not out of a sense of obligation (2 Co 9:7).

9. Giving and Receiving.

You will receive in the same measure you give. The more you give, the more you will receive (Lk 6:38).

10. Sowing and Reaping.

You will reap what you sow (Gal 6:7).
