The FEL Series is Completed

After six years of research and development, writing and testing, the FEL Series is now totally complete! All 12 modules are available in the Standard Version and the Site License Version!

We raised 96% of the project funds! The project costs rose to a total of $575,000 and we have raised $550,000 to date! We are so thankful to everyone who gave toward this effort. Thank you! Your giving will literally touch the world.

FEL Series: Standard Version

FEL Series: Site License Version

We have created a sample CD for each version to allow you to have a sample of each of the 12 modules and answer Frequently Asked Questions. Call the LTI office to receive a copy at 757-673-6581.

by Kevin Hinman, President
Keeping Integrity in Relationships
From The Leader's Balanced Life

Integrity is a comprehensive word that involves several facts:

1. Integrity means being whole or undivided.
Integrity comes from "integer," which means a whole number, as opposed to a portion or fraction. Integrity means to be complete, undivided, consistent, or whole (1Ki 9:4).
2. Integrity means being genuine.
Integrity means that you are genuine and real, without pretense, not hypocritical, not being fake or an imitation. We must be genuine with others, not giving a false image (1Pt 1:7).
3. Integrity means being honest.
Integrity means that you tell the truth and avoid deception. We must be sincere in our thoughts, motives, and actions (Pr 12:17).
4. Integrity means being dependable.
Integrity means you are trustworthy and dependable. We must keep our word and do what we say we will do (Mt 5:37).
5. Integrity means being pure.
Integrity means pure, clean, free from sin or guilt. We must live a life of high moral conduct and purity (Ps 51:10).
